7C.1 DSA/DMA/AP/TPPSP and/or its employees, representatives and sub-agents shall endeavour to recommend products that are suitable and appropriate to the customer's requirements and profile.

7C.2 Prior to recommending a product or service, reasonable efforts shall be made to understand:
a. Customer requirements;
b. Purpose of availing the product;
c. Financial capability;
d. Risk profile;

e. Product expectations;
f. Any other relevant factors (time horizon, complexity, fee structure, customer's age, income, level of financial literacy, risk tolerance)

7C.3 Products shall not be recommended solely for the purpose of achieving business targets, incentives or commissions.

7C.4 DSA/DMA/AP/TPPSP personnel shall ensure that customers understand the nature, features, benefits, obligations and risks associated with the product being offered.

7D. PREVENTION OF MIS-SELLING

7D.1 DSA/DMA/AP/TPPSP and/or its employees, representatives and sub-agents shall not engage in any act of mis-selling.

7D.2 Definition of Mis-selling

"Mis-selling" means the sale of any financial product or service, whether the Company's own product or service or a third-party product or service, in any of the following circumstances:

a. Sale of a product or service that is neither suitable nor appropriate having regard to the customer's profile evaluated at the time of sale, notwithstanding the customer's explicit consent;
b. Sale of a product or service without providing correct and complete information, or by providing false, incorrect, incomplete or misleading information;
c. Sale of a product or service without obtaining the customer's explicit consent;
d. Compulsory bundling of another product or service with the sale of the product or service requested by the customer; or
e. Sale of a product or service involving any other act, omission, practice or element defined or treated as mis-selling by the applicable financial-sector regulator or any other competent authority.

For the purpose of this clause, "compulsory bundling" means making the availment of one product or service by a customer conditional upon the availment of another product or service, whether the Company's own or a third-party product or service.

Offering multiple products or services as a package shall not constitute compulsory bundling where:

i. The customer has voluntarily elected to avail each product or service after receiving complete and transparent information;
ii. Separate and explicit consent has been obtained for each product or service; and
iii. The customer is free to decline any optional product or service without affecting the availability or terms of the product or service originally requested by the customer.

For avoidance of doubt, explicit consent shall not validate the sale of a product or service that is unsuitable or inappropriate for the customer.

7D.3 Any instance of mis-selling shall constitute a serious violation of this Code.

7D.4 The Company may initiate disciplinary action, suspension, termination, recovery of losses or blacklisting in cases involving mis-selling.

7D.5 Compensation and Refund in Cases of Mis-selling

The Company shall maintain a Board-approved Policy governing the investigation, determination, compensation, refund and remediation of cases involving established mis-selling, as amended from time to time. Such Policy shall form part of the Company's internal governance framework.

The DSA/DMA/AP/TPPSP and its employees, representatives and sub-agents shall comply with the provisions of the said Policy, cooperate fully with the Company in the investigation and resolution of any alleged or established case of mis-selling, promptly provide all records, documents and information sought by the Company, and implement such corrective, remedial or recovery measures as may be required under the terms of their agreement with the Company and the applicable Board-approved Policy.

7E. THIRD-PARTY PRODUCTS AND SERVICES (TPPS)

7E.1 Where any third-party product or service is distributed, referred or facilitated through the Company, DSA/DMA/AP/TPPSP personnel shall clearly disclose:

a. Name of the third-party provider;
b. Nature of the product/service;
c. Role of the Company;
d. Role of the third-party provider.

7E.2 Third-party products and services shall not be represented as products of the Company.

7E.3 Customers shall be informed where a product is provided by an external service provider.

7E.4 DSA/DMA/AP/TPPSP personnel shall not create any impression that purchase of a third-party product is mandatory unless specifically required by law or approved Company policy.

7E.5 All applicable regulatory requirements relating to third-party products shall be complied with.

7F. PROHIBITION OF COMPULSORY BUNDLING

7F.1 Customers shall not be compelled, coerced or induced to purchase any insurance, protection plan, investment product or ancillary service as a condition for availing any loan or financial product of the Company.

7F.2 Where the availability of the Company's own product or service is contingent upon purchase of a TPPS as a risk mitigant, the customer shall be provided the option to purchase the required product or service from any TPPS Provider of the customer's choice, subject to the product or service meeting the Company's disclosed risk-mitigation requirements.

7F.3 Offering multiple products or services as a package shall not constitute compulsory bundling where:
a. The package is based on the customer's voluntary and explicit consent;
b. Separate information regarding each product or service has been provided;
c. The customer is free to decline every optional product or service; or
d. The additional product or service is provided on a complimentary basis without any direct or indirect cost to the customer.

7F.4 Any forced sale, tying arrangement or compulsory bundling shall be treated as mis-selling.

7G. DIGITAL CONDUCT AND PROHIBITION OF DARK PATTERNS

7G.1 DSA/DMA/AP/TPPSP and/or its employees, representatives and sub-agents shall ensure fairness, transparency and customer-centricity in all digital interactions.

13. QUALIFICATIONS FOR DSA / DMA / AP/TPPSP

13.1 The DSA/DMA/AP/TPPSP shall possess the necessary capability, competence, infrastructure and resources to undertake activities assigned by the Company.

13.2 Individual DSAs/DMAs/Aps/TPPSP shall possess such educational qualifications, certifications, experience and training as may be prescribed by the Company or applicable regulatory authorities from time to time.

13.3 Corporate entities seeking empanelment as DSA/DMA/AP/TPPSP shall ensure that their constitutional documents, including Memorandum of Association, Articles of Association, Partnership Deed, LLP Agreement or equivalent constitutive documents, permit carrying on activities relating to sourcing, marketing, promotion, referral or distribution of financial products and services.

13.4 The DSA/DMA/AP/TPPSP shall ensure that its employees, representatives and sub-agents possess the knowledge, training and competence required for carrying out assigned activities.

13.5 The Company reserves the right to prescribe additional eligibility criteria, certifications, training requirements or operational standards from time to time.

14. EMPANELMENT OF DSA / DMA / AP / TPPSP

14.1 Any DSA/DMA/AP/TPPSP seeking engagement or empanelment with the Company shall submit an application in the format prescribed by the Company.

14.2 The application shall be accompanied by such documents, declarations, undertakings, registrations and certifications as may be required by the Company.

14.3 The Company shall conduct and document pre-engagement due diligence, background verification, reference checks, site visits, capability assessments and risk assessments in accordance with Section 14A before granting empanelment. Where the proposed arrangement involves sub-agents, separate approval and due diligence shall be undertaken in accordance with Section 14B.

14.4 Empanelment shall be subject to execution of all agreements, declarations and documents prescribed by the Company.

14.5 The Company reserves the right to reject, suspend, terminate or refuse renewal of empanelment without assigning any reason, subject to applicable laws.

14.6 The Company shall maintain an up-to-date database of empanelled DSAs/DMAs/Aps/TPPSP and may publish such information as required under applicable regulatory guidelines.

14A. GOVERNANCE AND OVERSIGHT OF DSA/DMA/AP/TPPSP ENGAGEMENTS

14A.1 Governance Objective

The Company shall maintain a risk-based governance and oversight framework for the selection, empanelment, deployment, supervision, monitoring, performance evaluation, renewal, suspension and termination of DSAs/DMAs/Aps/TPPSP and their employees, representatives and sub-agents.

The framework shall be proportionate to the nature, scale, complexity, geographical spread, customer impact, data access and risk profile of the activities assigned to the relevant DSA/DMA/AP/TPPSP.

14A.2 Activities That May Be Assigned

Subject to the written agreement, approved operating procedures, applicable law and such restrictions as may be prescribed by the Company, a DSA/DMA/AP/TPPSP may be assigned one or more of the following activities:

a. Generation and referral of prospective customer leads obtained through lawful and approved sources;
b. Marketing and promotion of products and services specifically approved by the Company;
c. Providing factual product information and explaining approved product features, eligibility criteria, fees, charges and documentation requirements;
d. Assisting prospective customers in completing application forms and compiling supporting documents;
e. Facilitating submission of applications and documents through approved channels;
f. Scheduling customer meetings, field visits or interactions with authorised Company personnel;
g. Providing status updates based only on information authorised by the Company;
h. Conducting preliminary document checks or field-verification activities where specifically authorised;
i. Distribution of Company-approved brochures, Key Facts Statements, disclosures and promotional material;
j. Collecting customer feedback and referring complaints to the Company through approved channels; and
k. Such other non-discretionary and ancillary activities as may be expressly approved in writing by the Company.

Assignment of any activity shall be specific, documented and consistent with the capability, training, authorisation and risk classification of the relevant DSA/DMA/AP/TPPSP.

14A.3 Activities That Shall Not Be Assigned or Undertaken

Unless expressly permitted by applicable law and specifically authorised under an approved Company policy, no DSA/DMA/AP/TPPSP, employee, representative or sub-agent shall:

a. Sanction, approve, reject, renew, restructure or modify any loan, credit facility or financial product;
b. Exercise credit discretion, make a final credit decision or communicate an unauthorised assurance of approval;
c. Determine or alter interest rates, fees, charges, waivers, repayment terms, credit limits or product conditions;
d. Execute any agreement, sanction letter, receipt, discharge, undertaking or other document on behalf of the Company;
e. Collect cash, blank cheques, bearer instruments, passwords, PINs, OTPs, CVVs, internet-banking credentials or other confidential authentication information from customers;
f. Maintain, retain or transmit customer information through personal devices, personal email accounts, unauthorised applications or unapproved storage media;
g. Issue unauthorised advertisements, promotional material, customer communication, social-media communication or public statement using the Company’s name or brand;
h. Represent itself or any of its personnel as an employee, officer or authorised decision-maker of the Company;
i. Appoint, replace or deploy a sub-agent without the prior written approval of the Company;
j. Further outsource or subcontract any assigned activity without prior written approval;
k. Make any false, misleading or unauthorised commitment or assurance on behalf of the Company;
l. Undertake recovery or repossession activity unless separately empanelled and authorised under the applicable recovery-agent framework;
m. Impose, collect or retain any unauthorised fee or consideration from a customer;
n. Alter, fabricate, suppress or destroy customer documents or Company records;

o. Obtain customer consent by coercion, misrepresentation, concealment, pre-ticked options or any prohibited dark pattern; or
p. Undertake any activity prohibited by law, regulation, the agreement, this Code or Company policy.

14A.4 Pre-Engagement Due Diligence

Before empanelment or commencement of activities, the Company shall undertake and document due diligence proportionate to the nature and risk of the proposed engagement. The due diligence may include:

a. Verification of legal existence, ownership, constitutional documents and authority to undertake the proposed activities;
b. Verification of registered office, principal place of business, operational locations and physical infrastructure;
c. Identification and verification of promoters, directors, partners, proprietors, beneficial owners, key managerial personnel and authorised signatories;
d. Verification of PAN, GST registration, licences, registrations, tax status and other statutory documents, as applicable;
e. Assessment of financial position, solvency, business continuity and ability to discharge contractual obligations;
f. Assessment of experience, competence, staffing, technology, data-security arrangements and operational capacity;
g. Background checks, reference checks and searches relating to criminal proceedings, fraud, regulatory action, litigation, insolvency, wilful default, debarment, blacklisting or adverse media, subject to applicable law;
h. Identification of actual, potential or perceived conflicts of interest;
i. Assessment of arrangements for recruitment, screening, training and supervision of employees, representatives and proposed sub-agents;
j. Assessment of information-security, privacy, access-control and record-retention arrangements;
k. Assessment of complaint history and conduct risk, where the entity has prior experience in financial services;
l. Confirmation that proposed personnel possess qualifications or certifications prescribed by applicable financial-sector regulators; and
m. Any enhanced due diligence considered necessary based on the risk classification of the engagement.

No DSA/DMA/AP/TPPS shall commence activity until all material due-diligence observations have been satisfactorily resolved, accepted by the competent authority or covered by a time-bound risk-mitigation plan.

14A.5 Risk Classification

The Company shall maintain a Board-approved Policy and internal governance framework for the risk classification, monitoring and oversight of DSA/DMA/AP/TPPS, as amended from time to time. Such framework may provide for the categorisation of DSA/DMA/AP/TPPS based on the Company's risk assessment methodology and shall prescribe the applicable monitoring, review, inspection, audit, due diligence and other oversight measures commensurate with the assessed risk.

The DSA/DMA/AP/TPPS and its employees, representatives and sub-agents shall comply with the requirements of such Board-approved Policy and internal governance framework and shall extend full cooperation to the Company in connection with all monitoring, review, inspection, audit, due diligence and other oversight activities undertaken thereunder.

14A.6 Ongoing Due Diligence and Monitoring

During the period of engagement, the Company shall carry out ongoing due diligence and monitoring at a frequency determined by the relevant risk classification. Such review may include:

a. Periodic renewal of KYC, constitutional, ownership, licensing and statutory records;
b. Review of changes in directors, partners, proprietors, beneficial owners, key personnel, authorised signatories or operational locations;
c. Periodic screening for regulatory actions, criminal proceedings, fraud, litigation, insolvency, blacklisting, adverse media and material reputational events;
d. Review of financial capacity, operational capability, staffing and infrastructure;

e. Review of training and certification records;
f. Review of customer complaints, mis-selling allegations, consent exceptions, data incidents and conduct breaches;
g. Sample-based verification of customer interactions, applications, disclosures and consent records;
h. Review of advertisements, telecalling practices, digital journeys and customer communications;
i. Review of sub-agent appointment, deployment, supervision and attrition;
j. Site visits, mystery shopping, call monitoring, system reviews or field inspections, wherever appropriate;
k. Verification of compliance with corrective-action plans; and
l. Reassessment of the engagement's risk classification.

The DSA/DMA/AP/TPPSP shall immediately notify the Company of any material change or event that may affect its eligibility, reputation, capacity or compliance status.

14A.7 Performance Evaluation Standards

The performance of every DSA/DMA/AP/TPPSP shall be evaluated periodically against quantitative and qualitative standards prescribed by the Company. Such standards may include:

a. Business volumes and achievement of agreed service levels, Delinquency levels;
b. Application quality, documentation completeness and error rates;
c. Approval, rejection, cancellation and early-delinquency trends, where relevant;
d. Customer complaint rate and complaint severity;
e. Number and nature of substantiated mis-selling cases;
f. Customer-consent exceptions and disclosure deficiencies;
g. Customer feedback or satisfaction indicators;
h. Turnaround time and responsiveness;
i. Compliance with training and certification requirements;
j. Data-security, confidentiality and access-control incidents;
k. Audit, inspection and monitoring observations;
l. Repeat or overdue corrective actions;
m. Fraud, forgery, impersonation or document-manipulation incidents;
n. Conduct and disciplinary record of employees, representatives and sub-agents; and
o. Such product-specific or risk-specific indicators as may be prescribed.

Business volume or revenue generation shall not be the sole basis of performance evaluation. Customer outcomes, conduct, compliance and quality indicators shall carry appropriate weight.

14A.8 Control Mechanisms

The Company shall establish appropriate preventive, detective and corrective controls over activities performed by DSAs/DMAs/APs/TPPSP. Depending upon the nature and risk of the engagement, such controls may include:

a. Written agreements and approved standard operating procedures;
b. Activity-wise authorisation and role-based access controls;
c. Maker-checker or supervisory review of prescribed activities;
d. Approved scripts, forms, disclosures, advertisements and customer communications;
e. System controls restricting access to customer information on a need-to-know basis;
f. Restrictions on downloading, copying, retaining or sharing customer data;
g. Unique user credentials and prohibition on sharing of system credentials;
h. Maintenance of approved personnel and sub-agent databases;
i. Mandatory identification and premises-access controls;
j. Call recording, digital audit trails, consent records and application-tracking controls, where applicable;
k. Sample checking, customer call-backs and post-sale verification;
l. Complaint, exception and incident monitoring;
m. Reconciliation of business, fees, payouts and rejected or cancelled cases;
n. Periodic certification of compliance by the DSA/DMA/AP/TPPSP;
o. Inspection, audit, mystery shopping and field-surveillance mechanisms;
p. Corrective and preventive action tracking; and
q. Suspension or restriction of access and business pending investigation of material concerns.

14A.9 Inspection and Audit

The Company, its internal auditors, external auditors, authorised representatives and applicable regulatory authorities shall have the right to inspect or audit the DSA/DMA/AP/TPPSP and its approved sub-agents in relation to activities undertaken for the Company.

The DSA/DMA/AP/TPPSP shall:

a. Provide timely access to premises, personnel, systems, records and documents;
b. Cooperate with interviews, sample testing, customer verification and investigations;
c. Submit responses and action plans within the prescribed time;
d. Rectify observations within agreed timelines; and
e. Permit verification of closure by the Company.

Obstruction of an audit, concealment of information, provision of false information or failure to implement material corrective actions shall constitute a serious breach.

14A.10 Periodic Compliance Certification

At such frequency as may be prescribed, the authorised signatory of the DSA/DMA/AP/TPPSP shall provide a certification confirming that:

a. The entity and its approved personnel and sub-agents have complied with this Code and the agreement;
b. No unapproved sub-agent has been appointed or deployed;
c. Applicable training and certification requirements have been completed;
d. All material complaints, breaches, frauds and regulatory events have been disclosed;
e. Customer data has been handled only through approved systems and channels; and
f. Corrective actions communicated by the Company have been completed or accurately reported as pending.

14A.11 Escalation and Non-Compliance Matrix

Instances of non-compliance shall be classified and escalated according to their nature, recurrence, customer impact, financial impact, regulatory impact and reputational risk.

Level I – Minor or Isolated Deviation

Examples may include an isolated documentation deficiency, delayed submission, minor process lapse or first-time non-material breach.

Action may include:

a. Written advisory or warning;
b. Mandatory correction within a stipulated period;
c. Counselling or refresher training; and
d. Enhanced monitoring.

The matter shall ordinarily be handled by the relevant Business Function with reporting to the designated control function, where required.

Level II – Material or Repeated Non-Compliance

Examples may include repeated process breaches, significant disclosure failure, unauthorised communication, failure to supervise personnel, repeated customer complaints, non-completion of training or failure to close audit observations.

Action may include:

a. Formal show-cause notice;
b. Suspension of specified personnel, products, locations or activities;
c. Withholding of incentives or payouts, where contractually permissible;
d. Enhanced review or special audit;
e. Time-bound corrective and preventive action plan;
f. Replacement or debarment of responsible personnel; and
g. Escalation to the relevant Business Head and designated Risk or Compliance official.

Level III – Critical or Serious Breach

Examples may include fraud, forgery, impersonation, established mis-selling, coercion, unauthorised collection of money, serious data breach, regulatory violation, wilful concealment, use of an unapproved sub-agent, false representation as a Company employee, obstruction of audit or any conduct causing material customer harm or reputational damage.

Action may include:

a. Immediate suspension of business and system or premises access;
b. Suspension of payouts pending investigation, where contractually permissible;
c. Termination of the engagement;
d. Recovery of customer compensation, losses, costs or damages attributable to the DSA/DMA/AP/TPPSP;
e. Debarment or blacklisting of the entity and responsible individuals;
f. Reporting to law-enforcement agencies, regulators, industry bodies or other authorities, where required; and
g. Escalation to senior management, the appropriate management committee and/or the Board or a Board-level committee, depending upon materiality.

Nothing in this clause shall prevent the Company from taking immediate protective action without following the sequence applicable to lower-level breaches where customer interest, regulatory compliance, data security or the Company's reputation may be at risk.

14A.12 Record of Governance Actions

The Company shall maintain a Board-approved Policy and internal governance framework for maintaining records relating to the oversight, monitoring and governance of DSA/DMA/AP/TPPS engagements, as amended from time to time. Such framework shall prescribe the nature of records to be maintained, the responsibilities for record management and the applicable record-retention requirements in accordance with applicable laws, regulatory requirements and the Company's internal policies.
The DSA/DMA/AP/TPPS and its employees, representatives and sub-agents shall provide all information, documents, records and assistance as may be required by the Company for maintaining such governance records and shall comply with all record-related requirements communicated by the Company from time to time.

14B. GOVERNANCE OF SUB-AGENTS

14B.1 Engagement of Sub-Agents

The DSA/DMA/AP/TPPS may engage employees, representatives or sub-agents for carrying out activities relating to the Company's business, subject to the terms of its agreement with the Company, applicable laws and regulations, this Code of Conduct and the Company's Board-approved policies and internal governance framework, as amended from time to time.

Where prescribed under the Company's Board-approved policies or internal governance framework, the DSA/DMA/AP/TPPS shall obtain the Company's approval before engaging or deploying sub-agents for specified activities.

14B.2 Responsibility of the Principal DSA/DMA/AP/TPPS

The DSA/DMA/AP/TPPS shall remain fully responsible and accountable for the acts, omissions, conduct, representations and regulatory compliance of its employees, representatives and sub-agents engaged in connection with the Company's business, as if such acts or omissions were those of the DSA/DMA/AP/TPPS itself.

The engagement of any employee, representative or sub-agent shall not create any employment, agency, partnership or contractual relationship between such person and the Company, except where expressly agreed by the Company in writing.

14B.3 Compliance with the Company's Governance Framework

The DSA/DMA/AP/TPPS shall ensure that its employees, representatives and sub-agents comply with this Code of Conduct, the Company's Board-approved policies and internal governance framework, and all instructions, operational guidelines and standard operating procedures issued by the Company from time to time.

The DSA/DMA/AP/TPPS shall ensure that its employees, representatives and sub-agents are adequately trained, competent and authorised to perform the activities assigned to them in accordance with applicable regulatory requirements and the Company's internal policies.

14B.4 Cooperation with Due Diligence, Monitoring and Oversight

The DSA/DMA/AP/TPPS shall provide all information, documents, records and assistance reasonably required by the Company for the purposes of due diligence, monitoring, inspection, audit, review, investigation or any other oversight activity carried out in accordance with the Company's Board-approved policies and internal governance framework.

The DSA/DMA/AP/TPPS shall promptly implement any corrective or remedial actions communicated by the Company in relation to its employees, representatives or sub-agents.

14B.5 Reporting of Material Events

The DSA/DMA/AP/TPPS shall promptly notify the Company of any material event relating to its employees, representatives or sub-agents that may adversely affect their eligibility, legal or regulatory status, operational capability, reputation, or compliance with applicable laws, regulations, this Code of Conduct or the terms of engagement with the Company.

Such events shall include, wherever applicable, fraud, attempted fraud, data security incidents, customer complaints involving misconduct or mis-selling, regulatory or enforcement actions, material litigation, insolvency, or any other event that may expose the Company to legal, regulatory, operational, financial or reputational risk.

14B.6 Records and Compliance

The DSA/DMA/AP/TPPS shall maintain such records relating to its employees, representatives and sub-agents as may be prescribed under the Company's Board-approved policies and internal governance framework and shall furnish the same to the Company whenever required for regulatory, compliance, audit or supervisory purposes.

15. ENGAGEMENT TERMS, OVERSIGHT AND REGULATORY COMPLIANCE

15.1 The engagement of the DSA/DMA/AP/TPPS with the Company shall be governed by the terms of the Agreement, this Code of Conduct, the Company's Board-approved policies and internal governance framework, as amended from time to time, and all applicable laws, regulations and regulatory guidelines.

15.2 The DSA/DMA/AP/TPPS shall comply with all obligations, operational requirements, customer protection standards, confidentiality obligations, service standards and regulatory requirements communicated by the Company from time to time in accordance with its Board-approved policies and internal governance framework.

15.3 The Company shall have the right to monitor, supervise, review and oversee the activities performed by the DSA/DMA/AP/TPPS and its employees, representatives and sub-agents in such manner as may be prescribed under the Company's Board-approved policies and internal governance framework.

15.4 The DSA/DMA/AP/TPPS shall provide the Company, its internal or external auditors, and any person authorised by the Company with access to such books, records, documents, systems and information relating to the Company's business as may reasonably be required for audit, inspection, monitoring, review, investigation or regulatory compliance purposes.

15.5 The DSA/DMA/AP/TPPS shall maintain the confidentiality, integrity and security of all customer information and Company information and shall implement appropriate safeguards in accordance with applicable laws, regulatory requirements and the Company's policies.

15.6 The DSA/DMA/AP/TPPS shall comply with the Company's Board-approved policies and internal governance framework relating to business continuity, operational resilience, information security, outsourcing governance and such other operational requirements as may be communicated by the Company from time to time.
15.7 The engagement of employees, representatives or sub-agents by the DSA/DMA/AP/TPPS shall be governed by Section 14B of this Code of Conduct and the Company's Board-approved policies and internal governance framework. The DSA/DMA/AP/TPPS shall remain fully responsible and accountable for the acts, omissions and conduct of its employees, representatives and sub-agents.
15.8 The DSA/DMA/AP/TPPS shall extend full cooperation during any audit, inspection, review or investigation conducted by the Company or by any person authorised by the Company and shall promptly implement any corrective or remedial measures communicated by the Company.
15.9 The DSA/DMA/AP/TPPS shall provide all information, records, documents and assistance required by the Company for regulatory reporting, audit, inspection, investigation or compliance with applicable legal and regulatory requirements.
15.10 The DSA/DMA/AP/TPPS acknowledges and agrees that the Reserve Bank of India (RBI), National Housing Bank (NHB) and any other competent regulatory or statutory authority shall have such rights of inspection, supervision and access to records relating to the Company's outsourced activities as may be provided under applicable laws and regulatory directions.
15.11 The obligations relating to confidentiality, data protection, regulatory compliance, customer protection, record preservation and cooperation with regulatory or investigative authorities shall survive the expiry or termination of the engagement to the extent required under applicable laws, regulatory requirements or the terms of engagement with the Company.
15.12 The DSA/DMA/AP/TPPS shall preserve and maintain all records relating to the Company's business in accordance with applicable laws, regulatory requirements and the Company's Board-approved policies and internal governance framework.
